Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus Mourns the Passing of Senator Larry Selders

BATON ROUGE, La. — The Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus (LLBC) joins the people of Louisiana in mourning the sudden passing of our friend, colleague, and fellow Caucus member, Senator Larry Selders.

Senator Selders was a dedicated public servant whose leadership was defined by integrity, compassion, and an unwavering commitment to improving the lives of the people he represented. Throughout his service in the Louisiana Legislature, he was a tireless advocate for equity, opportunity, and justice, working diligently to strengthen communities and ensure that every voice was heard.

Representative Candace Newell, Chair of the Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus, reflected on Senator Selders' remarkable life and legacy:

"Today, our hearts are heavy as we mourn the loss of our brother, Senator Larry Selders. Larry was a man of unwavering integrity, quiet strength, and deep compassion for the people he served. He understood that public service is about lifting others, and he approached every decision with humility, wisdom, and an unwavering commitment to justice. His leadership within the Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus and the Louisiana Legislature made our institution stronger and our state better. While we grieve this tremendous loss, we are also profoundly grateful for the example he set and the legacy he leaves behind. On behalf of the Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus, we extend our deepest condolences and prayers to his beloved wife, Kendra, and their sons, Larry and Luke. We pray that they find comfort in God's abiding presence and in knowing that Senator Selders' life touched countless people across Louisiana."

During this difficult time, the members of the Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus extend our deepest condolences to Senator Selders' family, friends, legislative colleagues, and the constituents who entrusted him to represent their voices. We ask all Louisianans to join us in lifting the Selders family in prayer as they navigate this profound loss.

Though Senator Selders is no longer with us, his commitment to public service, his passion for justice, and his love for the people of Louisiana will endure. His legacy will continue to inspire future generations of leaders dedicated to building a more equitable and compassionate Louisiana.
